

Shaykh Sulaymān al-'Alwān(حفظه الله) was asked about the authenticity of the Hadīth "Do not fast on Saturday, except that which is obligated upon you"

The Shaykh responded by saying: This report is Munkar, [both] its chain & meaning. Imām Mālik(رحمه الله) said about it, "This is a lie", Abū Dāwūd(رحمه الله) mentioned it from him in his Sunan.

Imām al-Awzā'ī(رحمه الله) said: I have still remained silent about it, until I saw it spread, meaning the Hadīth of ibn Busr, this is regards to fasting on Saturday.

And the Prophet(صلى الله عليه وسلم) said: "None of you should fast on the day of Jum'ah, unless he fasts the day before or after it" Agreed upon from the Hadīth of Abī Hurayrâh(رضي الله عنه) and it is an evidence to fast on Saturday, and the Hadīths regarding that are many, and Allāh(جل وعلا) knows best.
